International Asset Management expands to mainland Europe with the opening of an office in Stockholm

International Asset Management Limited (IAM), one of the oldest fund of hedge funds managers, today announces the opening of its branch office in Sweden.

Henric Malmqvist has been appointed Director for the Stockholm office to increase IAM's reach and audience. He will be responsible for developing a broader sales and distribution network whilst maintaining a continued focus on tailor-making fund of hedge funds investment solutions for discerning institutional and private clients.

Mr Malmqvist joins IAM from ABN AMRO Asset Management where he worked for four years in Institutional Sales as a Product Specialist in Alternative Products. Prior to this he worked at Banco Fonder / Alfred Berg and Bank Sarasin & Cie in Zurich.

Morten Spenner, IAM's CEO commented:

"We are proud to announce our expansion into Sweden. That this office opening is possible is testament to our track record in tailor-making investment solutions for clients globally and we look forward to developing our current client base in mainland Europe under the excellent leadership of Henric, whom we welcome to the team."

IAM also has offices in London and New York.
